sume her school for small children at the residence of L. W. McCorn, on East Hill, Monday, Sept. 18th.

be so taken.

and is now presiding at the present term of the Chancery Court.

Wanted.
10,000 bushels of Wheat at Yale Mills. No. 1, or any quality. Cash on delivery.
N. F. CHAMBERS & Co.

Buggies and Carriages.
We ask attention to this card of Mr. CALEB OSBORN in this issue.
His stock of vehicles embraces such a variety as will enable him to meet almost any demand. Having formerly been a practical workman and manufacturer he knows how to select the best vehicles. Give him a call.

Buchanan and Bro. notify customers that they will hereafter sell exclusively for cash. They can't afford to run over town to collect small tickets. They also discontinue their meat wagon.

Taxes.
Mr. R. L. Evans, Tax Collector, notifies all delinquent tax payers in to-day's Citizen that if they do not come forward and pay their taxes by November 1st, he will be compelled to collect them by law.
These few words to the wise should be sufficient.

A Card.
Having purchased the stock of Messrs. Craine & Jackson, I will soon open a large and well assorted Fall Stock of all goods in my line.
I will endeavor to merit a liberal patronage. I will in due season notify the public of the arrival of my Fall Stock. sep 13t D. LAZARUS.

See legal notices from Lawrence County in to-day's CITIZEN. Some of them are important.

Interesting Meeting.
An interesting meeting is in progress at Brick Church under the auspices of the Presbyterian denomination. Rev. Wm. Stoddard is officiating, assisted by that able and eloquent divine Rev. Wm. E.
Caldwell, of Bethany. An ardent religious feeling prevails in the community and much good is being accomplished.

Dissolution of Copartnership.
The firm of Craine & Jackson is dissolved by mutual consent. All parties holding claims against the firm are requested to present them immediately for payment to D. Lazarus, our successor. This notice does not apply to the individual debts of the members of the firm.
CRABBE & JACKSON.
Pulaski, Sept. 1, 1871-3t.

The Circus.
John Robinson's Circus made a grand entry into the city last Tuesday morning. The sidewalks were lined with spectators all of whom seemed delighted with the magnificent pageant. The proce-sion was one of the most beautiful of the kind we have ever seen. Immense crowds of the yeomanry from this and adjoining counties, visited the circus during the day and night and all expressed their satisfaction with the performance.

Attention.
Smith & Robinson, desire to notify the public that they intend hereafter to sell meat for cash only. No "tickets" will be made for anybody.
This rule will be rigidly enforced.

Fine watches repaired "on time," at Winkler's.

Clothing.
Among the many prominent business houses of Nashville, none rank higher than the firm of Gordon & Rankin, wholesale dealers in clothing, No. 4, Inn Block, public square.
These gentlemen make clothing a specialty, and after inspecting their mammoth stock, selected by the most experienced buyers, with a view to satisfy the Tennessee trade, we do not hesitate to pronounce it the most complete in the city. We County merchants to at least give them a trial before purchasing elsewhere.

Police Court.

The war has been carried into Africa. There's been —A sound of devilry by night, And Ethiopia's chivalry was gathered there, Fist fights were seen and contrabands Dived deep into each other's hair.

Jo. Pointer, Wm. Gulin, alias "Bill Tubb" (a tub that stands on its own bottom,) Louis Crenshaw and Isom Hamilton, four eminent citizens of African genealogy, all of whom are industrious "howlers" in the negro synagogue, have been on a rampage. Jo. Pointer is the central figure in this group of ebony specimens. He had a wife and that wife was evidently of the opinion that she was "not for Jo." Hugging this opinion to her heart she assumed the role of a stricken dove (or crow,) and sought refuge with the fascinating alias "R. Tubb."
"R. Tubb" received her with a gushing welcome, and placing his hand upon his manly breast, declared that he would be the totality smashed into a thousand infinitesimal fragments if he did not defend her as long as a kink clung to his cranium. This chivalrous assurance, worthy of the Old, refurnished the fugitive dame and with the whites of her eyes rolling like two goose eggs in a bucket of black ink, she softly murmured her thanks as well as her determination to stay "whar" she was. But at this juncture, with eyes afame and kinks bristling like the quills on a fretful porcupine, the injured Jo made his appearance accompanied by Louis Crenshaw aforesaid. At the same time Isom Hamilton, with a stride like that of Banquo's ghost, strode upon the scene. An animated tableau vivante ensued. Strong words, odorous with brimstone and sulphur, were launched forth from mouths as cavernous as the Mammoth Cave itself; language was torn into tatters and the atmosphere was profusely sprinkled with "damns." Several motions to proceed at once to hair pulling seemed to prevail but before they could be carried out, two or three pacificators appeared and separated the combatants. The four negroes afterwards appeared before Esq.
Jones, and were bound over to keep in the peace in sums of $500 each.

Nick Hobson and W. B. Hobson were fined $5 each before Esq. Abernathy last Saturday for fighting.

Personal.

We were gratified to meet on the streets, a few days ago, our accomplished young friend Mr. J. Clark Bright of Fayetteville. Mr. Bright ranks among the foremost young lawyers in the State and we predict him a brilliant future.

Dr. J. F. Grant, of Nashville, W.
E. Moore, of Philadelphia, Joseph T. Graves, Helena, Ark. T. H.
Caruthers, Maryland, Chancellor W. S. Fleming, Columbia, T. H.
Dail and Nell S. Brown, Jr., of Nashville, J. M. Burroughs, Chattanooga, Samuel Rosenau, Athens, Ala., A. G. Kaplan, Cincinnati, Mrs.
L. A. Spae, Memphis, Tenn., and J. C. Cochran, Kentucky, were among the guests at the Tennessee House during the week.

We were pleased to meet a few days ago Mr. Meyer Goldsmith, of Mobile, Ala., who is on a visit to his relations in this place. He was on the steamer Ocean Wave when it exploded at the wharf in Mobile, Ala., a few weeks ago, and made a narrow escape from death.

The Fair.

The Union & America's continues inadvertently to announce that our Fair will commence on the 19th of September, when it has really been deferred until October 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th. We hope our Nashville contemporaries will make the necessary correction. We are truly rejoiced to say that the extensive preparations being made by the Agricultural and Mechanical Society, and the enthusiastic interest displayed by the people generally, all indicate that the Fair will be one of the most interesting and attractive ever held in the State.
The ladies are working zealously and when their influence is thrown into the scale it will weigh down any possibilities of failure. A liberal premium is offered for the best bushel of corn and we would respectfully suggest to our farmers that as many of them as are able to do so, will compete for the prize.
After the Fair it would also be profitable to them perhaps to exchange their seed corn with their neighbors, and by planting it on a different soil it may prove more productive.
It becomes all of our farmers to hold up the hands of the Directory, and by hearty co-operation and liberal contributions, make the Fair such a grand success that Giles county will ever have reason to be proud of it.

A Defunct Canine.

Bob Moore's little dog, "Frank McCoed," the hero of many a rat killing exploit, has vanished from the stage of life and is now a thing of the past. It is supposed that he was the victim of some hopeless love affair and ended his unhappy career by taking a dose of "cold pizen."

Matrimonial.

Our Lawrence county neighbors seem to have caught the matrimonial fever. Hymen is raging down there like a roaring lion. This is as it should be and it should be just as it is. The following marriage notices explain themselves:

Married at the residence of the bride's father, at Wayland Springs, Lawrence county, Tenn., on the 27th ult., by James A. Stuart, Esq., J. P., Mr. PLEASANT SMALLWOOD to Miss A. C. JOHNSON.

ATTENDANTS:

John Brannan and Miss Louisa Wilson.
James M. McKee and Miss Sallie
A. Strong.
Married at the residence of Mr.
G. W. Smallwood, at Wayland Springs, Lawrence county, Tenn., on the 4th inst., by James A. Stuart, Esq., J. P., Mr. James H. McKee to Miss SARAH F. EARNEST, of Lauderdale county, Ala.

Thos. J. Gist and Miss Sallie A.
Strong.
B. D. Earnest and Miss E. C. Brown.
John C. Wade and Miss Sarah F.
Quillen.
Moses Smallwood and Miss Margaret Boren.

We wish the gallant bridegrooms and their blooming brides long lives of uninterrupted bliss.

The heathen "Chinee" at the Bakery.

Illness of Gen. Brown.

Gen. Brown was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday morning, and for awhile a general feeling prevailed that his sickness was of a serious nature. We are truly rejoiced however, to state that he has so far recovered as to be able to sit up in his room. Anything affecting a life so precious to Giles County and all Tennessee as that of Gen. Brown, causes general anxiety and alarm.

EDITOR CITIZEN—My thanks are due the many friends who have solicited me, both personally and through your paper, to become a candidate for Tax Collector, and I would cheerfully accede to their request but for the fact that two of my friends, fellow-soldiers and cripples, are already candidates for that office. I do not feel inclined to run against these friends, and therefore decline to become a candidate Respectfully,
J. J. MARSHALL.

Oleaginous.

A gay widower of this county, whose penchant for the fair sex forces him occasionally to spend considerable time in making his toilet, committed a hair-rowing mistake a few evenings ago. While putting the finishing touch to his silken locks by the dim and flickering light of a coal oil lamp he espied what he thought was a bottle of hair oil. He frantically grasped it and poured some of its contents on his hands for the purpose of applying it to his hair. It looked like hair oil and it smelt like hair oil.
He applied it with infinite grace to his curls, when lo, and behold! shades of grizzly bears and visions of ox-marrow—it turned out to be mucilage. The victim of this sad mistake has since had his hair shingled, and while he has made up his mind not to stick to such hair oil in the future, he is afraid that the hair oil aforesaid will stick faithfully to him.

John V. Watson.

Southern merchants who buy goods in New York, are peculiarly fortunate if they happen to know the gentleman whose name heads this article. No house keeps better stocks of clothing than the one he represents, and certainly, no house in New York, nor even in America, can claim the services of a more thorough gentleman. Our fellow-citizen, J. P. May, one of our oldest and most successful merchants, after having dealt with him for more than twenty years, will bear us witness that few better men live than John V. Watson. See his card in this issue, and call to see him always.

Fine Buck Killed.

A fine buck, weighing one hundred and forty seven pounds, with a noble pair of antlers, was killed within two miles of Lawrenceburg last Saturday, by a party of hunters composed of R. C. McAlister, W. N. Lindsay and Oscar Webb.
The fatal shot that finished the earthly affairs of this monarch of the forest, was fired by Mr. W. N.
Lindsay.

J. A. Austin.

Among the many prominent Tennesseans doing business in New York, we met none during our recent visit to that metropolis who rank higher than J. A. Austin, formerly of Brownsville, Tenn., now with Messrs. Evans, Gardner Co., No. 537, 539 & 541 Broadway.
We trust our mercantile friends who visit New York this fall, will call upon him and test his cleverness for themselves.

Protracted Meeting.

Rev. W. Mooney, assisted by several able ministers, will begin a protracted meeting at the Methodist church in this place next Sunday.
It is to be hoped that a warm religious feeling will be engendered during the meeting.

ments, for rent. Enquire of E.

Deaths.

An infant child of Mr. B. F. Paterson died last Thursday. Miss Cynthia Hanna, daughter of Mr.
Andrew Hanna, died on the same day. Mr. Thomas Williamson, after a brief illness, died last Friday morning.

Mr. Geo. Watson, a well known citizen of this county, died at his residence, two miles from this place, last Thursday night.

Death of an Estimable Young Lady.

Miss Ella Pulley, a sister of our young friend David E. Pulley, died at 5 o'clock last Monday afternoon of consumption. She was a very lovely young lady and it is sad indeed that her beautiful young life has been quenched in its springtime. In this

—A melancholy season,
The saddest of the year, When the flowers cease to bloom and perish in all their beauty, she received the awful summons. But there are perennial gardens in the upper world, behind the azure can-opy of skies, where the crushed flower will bloom again forever, and its fragrance mingle with an atmosphere laden with the ravishing melody of angel pens.

Dr. A. J. Whitthorne, a well known physician of this place, died very suddenly at his residence last Thursday evening. He had been in bad health for some time past but was not sufficiently unwell to be prevented from giving attention to his professional duties. Last Thursday, however, he complained of feeling unusually bad, and just before supper he suddenly fell to the floor and expired instantly.
He was a brother of Gen. W. J. Whitthorne of Maury County, and had at one time been a partner in a drug store in Pulaski. He resumed the practice of his profession only a short time since. Dr. Whitthorne was a gentleman of many excellent traits of character, and possessed fine scholarly attainments.

Resolutions of Candorence.

A special meeting was called by the members of the Singing Society at Chestnut Grove, to pass resolutions of candorence for one of their departed members, who was a devoted Christian of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was a member of Chestnut Grove Church. The meeting was opened with singing and prayer, after which Thos. A. Maulsby was called to the chair, who, after announcing the object of the meeting, appointed Samuel K. Mantley, W. J. West and W. M. Shores, as a committee to prepare resolutions, which committee reported as follows:

WHEREAS, It has seemed good to the Almighty Disposer of Events to remove from our midst our late worthy and esteemed member Miss CYNTHIA A. HANNA, who departed this life on the 4th inst.; and whereas, the intimate relations long held by the deceased with the members of this Society, render it proper that we should place upon record our appreciation of her devoted services as a member and her merits as a young lady; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we deplore the loss of Miss Cynthia A. Hanna with deep feelings of regret, softened only by the confident hope that her spirit is with those who, having fought the good fight, are enjoying perfect happiness in a better world.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family our sincere condolences, and our earnest sympathy in their affliction at the loss of one who was as good and devoted a member of the Church and of the Singing Society.
